Assalamualaikum wrwb

Dear Authors,

We are pleased to inform you that the Journal of Islamic Monetary Economics and Finance (JIMF) scientific committee has recommended your paper entitled "Measuring the Efficiency of Waqf Fund in Indonesia" for presentation at the 8th IIMEFC 2022 International Call for Papers and Webinar Sessions on 5-6 October 2022. We will send you information about the agenda and weblink separately to your email. Conditional on you signing the attached copyright transfer form, your paper will also be considered for the regular peer-review process in JIMF. The submission details will be shared with you following the conclusion of our conference. In return for your paper contribution, you will be rewarding IDR 15,000,000.- (fifteen million Indonesian Rupiah), conditionally if it is accepted for publication in JIMF after accommodating inputs/revisions from reviewers and also from discussant's comments, as well as the regular peer-review process. This reward is a one-time reward per paper (not per author). In order for us to process your reward, you will need to submit a letter from the Editor that your paper is accepted for publication in JIMF.

Given there are so many high-quality papers submitted to this year's call for papers, we have put some papers on a reserve list. It follows that while we make this invitation to you, considering the reserve list, you have only until 29 September 2022 (11.50 am Jakarta time) to accept this invitation by returning the signed copyright form and revised paper to:

Mr. Mohammad Aly Fikry at mohammad_aly@bi.go.id with a cc to journal.jimf@gmail.com [please use the following subject on your confirmation email: Confirmation of Presentation at the IIMEFC 2022 Webinar Parallel].

All co-authors are required to sign and date the form. We accept scanned copies of the signed copyright transfer form. If we do not receive your reply with the signed copyright form by the deadline, we will assume you have withdrawn your submission and will not be joining the parallel sessions. In this case, we will offer your spot to another deserving candidate.

The scientific committee also commented on your paper. While specific comments will be presented at the conference, for now leading up to the conference the committee encourages you to revise your manuscript according to the enclosed reviewer's comments and JIMF Template. Moreover, the committee also found using the iThenticate that the similarity index of your paper is 10%. For your information, we cannot accept a similarity index of greater than 20%.

Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact Mr. Mohammad Aly Fikry at mohammad_aly@bi.go.id with a cc to journal.jimf@gmail.com. Thank you for your submission, and we look forward to your positive response and further contribution to making the 8th IIMEFC 2022 International call for papers a success.

Wassalamualaikum wr wb
