SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR REVISED PAPERS:

In order to process your paper, we require:

A point-by-point response to the comments, including a description of any additional experiments that were carried out and a detailed rebuttal of any criticisms or requested revisions that you disagreed with.

This must be uploaded as a 'Point-by-point response to the reviewers' file. All changes to the manuscript must be highlighted or indicated by using tracked changes.

At this stage, please also ensure that you have replaced your initial-submission image files with production-quality figures. These should be supplied at 300 dpi resolution for .jpeg and .tiff or as .eps files. Figures should not include Figure number labels in the image.

Please ensure you conform to our authorship policies, also outlined here: <https://www.icmje.org/recommendations/browse/roles-and-responsibilities/defining-the-role-of-authors-and-contributors.html>

If improvements to the English language within your manuscript have been requested, you should have your manuscript reviewed by someone who is fluent in English. If you would like professional help in revising this manuscript, you can use any reputable English language editing service.

Dear Dr. Liza Pristiyanti,

Re: "Relationship between Knowledge and Adherence to Hypertension Treatment"

We're delighted to let you know your manuscript has now been accepted for publication in Journal of Public Health in Africa.

Editor comments
All comments have now been answered.

Article Processing Charge

As the corresponding author of an accepted manuscript, your next steps will be to arrange payment of your article-processing charge (APC). You will shortly receive an email with more information.

Checking the proofs

Prior to publication, our team will also check the format of your manuscript to ensure that it conforms to the standards of the journal. They will be in touch shortly to request any necessary changes, or to confirm that none are needed.

Once we've prepared your paper for publication, you will receive a proof, if needed. At this stage, please check that the author list and affiliations are correct. For the main text, only errors that have been introduced during the production process, or those that directly compromise the scientific integrity of the paper, may be corrected. Please make sure that only one author communicates with us and that only one set of corrections is returned. As the corresponding (or nominated) author, you are responsible for the accuracy of all content, including spelling of

Dear Dr. Liza Pristiyanti,
Re: "Relationship between Knowledge and Adherence to Hypertension Treatment"

We are pleased to let you know that your manuscript has now passed through the review stage and is ready for revision. Many manuscripts require a round of revisions, so this is a normal but important stage of the editorial process.

Editor comments
Please go through the editor's comments and address the issues raised.

To ensure the Editor and Reviewers will be able to recommend that your revised manuscript is accepted, please pay careful attention to each of the comments that have been pasted underneath this email. This way we can avoid future rounds of clarifications and revisions, moving swiftly to a decision.

Therefore, we invite you to revise your paper, considering the points raised. At the same time, we ask you to make sure your manuscript complies with our format by reviewing our guidelines for preparing your manuscript, as attached to this email. After revision, the manuscript should have a similarity index of less than 20%.

Once you have addressed each comment and completed each step listed below, the revised submission and final file can be uploaded via the link below.
