Kepada: Mr Muhammad Arifin Parenrengi <muhammad.arifin@fk.unair.ac.id>

Dear Mr Muhammad Arifin Parenrengi,

Thank you for opting in to In Review from Springer Nature as part of your submission to Child's Nervous System. To begin tracking your submission and to view a draft version of your preprint, log in to Research Square.

Log in

In Review is a free service that posts your manuscript publicly and permanently to the preprint server Research Square, and lets you track its status during peer review through a peer review timeline.

All preprints posted as part of the In Review service are screened for preprint suitability, formatted, assigned a DOI, and publicly posted under a CC-BY 4.0 license as a preprint on Research Square. For some journals, the preprint is posted only if the manuscript is sent out for peer review. However, if you'd like to preprint right away, log in to Research Square and select "Post my preprint".

If you did not intend to opt in to In Review and would like to cancel your preprint, please log in to Research Square to opt out as soon as possible. Once your preprint is posted, you'll no longer be able to have it removed. For questions about your preprint or the In Review service, you can visit the FAQ or contact Research Square at info@researchsquare.com.

Sincerely,

Springer Nature

REVIEWER REPORTS

Reviewer Comments:

Reviewer 1

Good paper but more details and figures are needed

Reviewer 2

In this case report the authors describe a reduction cranioplasty, show what appears by CT scan imagery to be a nice result, and review selected publications in support of their procedure. I have two suggestions for the authors that I think would improve their report.

The first relates to the length of follow up. From what is described, it seems that their follow up is just 11-days. I suspect one of the authors has seen this child postoperatively. Either way, the length of follow up needs to be specifically stated, along with a brief description of how the child was doing at the time of the last follow up. These challenging procedures are not without risk, so the reader will want to know if this child later experienced an infection, cerebrospinal fluid leak, alteration in mental status, etc.?

The second issue is that the authors seem to appreciate that this procedure is performed for function reasons; most often to reduce the weight of the head to allow the child to hold his or her head upright, unsupported. It would be helpful if the authors were to clarify their specific reason for surgery in this child and then report if the child was, for example, able to hold his head up after the surgery was performed, or in what way they felt that their goals of surgery were accomplished.

Dear Dr Parenrengi,

Re: "Cranial vault reduction cranioplasty for severe macrocephaly due to holoprosencephaly and subdural hygroma: a case report"

We're delighted to let you know that your manuscript has been accepted for publication in Child's Nervous System.

Prior to publication, our production team will check the format of your manuscript to ensure that it conforms to the journal's requirements. They will be in touch shortly to request any necessary changes, or to confirm that none are needed.

Checking the proofs

Once we've prepared your paper for publication, you will receive a proof. At this stage, please check that the author list and affiliations are correct. For the main text, only errors that have been introduced during the production process, or those that directly compromise the scientific integrity of the paper, may be corrected.

As the corresponding (or nominated) author, you are responsible for the accuracy of all content, including spelling of names and current affiliations.

To ensure prompt publication, your proofs should be returned within two working days.

Publication policies

Acceptance of your manuscript is conditional on all authors agreeing to our publication policies at:

<https://www.springernature.com/gp/policies/editorial-policies>Child's Nervous System is a transformative journal. This means it offers a hybrid publication model. When the journal accepts research for publication, the article may be published using either immediate gold open access or the subscription publishing route. Dear Author,

We are pleased to inform you that your paper is nearing publication. You can help us facilitate quick and accurate publication by using our e.Proofing system. The system will show you an HTML version of the article that you can correct online. In addition, you can view/download a PDF version for your reference.

As you are reviewing the proofs, please keep in mind the following:

- This is the only set of proofs you will see prior to publication.
- Only errors introduced during production process or that directly compromise the scientific integrity of the paper may be corrected.
- Any changes that contradict journal style will not be made.
- Any changes to scientific content (including figures) will require editorial review and approval.

Please check the author/editor names very carefully to ensure correct spelling, correct sequence of given and family names and that the given and family names have been correctly designated (NB the family name is highlighted in blue).

Please submit your corrections within 2 working days and make sure you fill out your response to any AUTHOR QUERIES raised during typesetting. Without your response to these queries, we will not be able to continue with the processing of your article for Online Publication.
