This is regarding manuscript 4574042 titled "Beyond the Scale: Investigating Adiponectin, ICAM-1, and VCAM-1 as Metabolic Markers in Obese Adolescents with Metabolic Syndrome" submitted to the journal "Journal of Obesity".

While checking the manuscript, we noticed that the reference section contained et al references. Kindly expand the et al. references in the manuscript and provide the revised file with a brief expansion of all references. Each reference should reflect all the authors. So, please expand the et.al., by specifying all the Authors in the final revised version and then provide the updated manuscript in docx format through the mail itself. We will check and upload it on your behalf.

If you have any questions then please let us know.

Please note that we could not take any action on your manuscript until we receive your response.
