ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

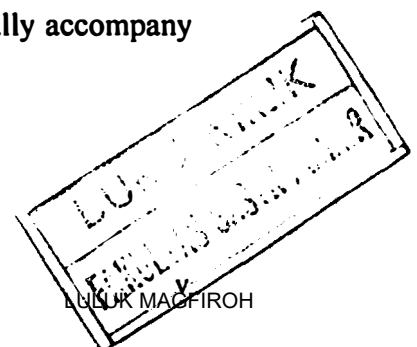

In the name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful. All the praises and thanks be to Allah, the Almighty, for blessing me so much that I can finish my thesis and my study.

I would like to convey my highest gratitude to my beloved mother and father, for their loves and supports they have given to me all the time, and for taking care of me until now on.

I wish also to express my great appreciation to my thesis advisor, Mr. Jurianto, for his input, editing, advises, great patience and understanding that make it possible for me to accomplish this thesis. I also would like to thank all English Department lecturers who have given me invaluable insights all these years.

I wish also to thank all students in SMU Unggulan Darul 'Ulum Jombang especially 2a and 2d students for being my respondents. I also would like to thank Mas Emy, Mbak Sri, Udhien and Nuning, who make our home become so warm and "life" that makes me always want to come back home.

Big thanks also go to Ani and Levi; their complaints mean a lot to me. My thanks go to Atik, among five persons who had ever been my roommate, she is the one who can understand and forgive me for everything I have done. To everyone in Dharmawangsa VIII, thanks for being my friends in ups and downs of my life. Thanks to my beloved "Black Noisy" who always faithfully accompany me with lovely songs everyday. And many thanks to “36 Comp”, I can not imagine finishing this thesis without its great help..

My gratitude also goes to my best classmates during my years of college: Festya, Venny and Hari for always making me laugh even when I am sad, Diani for her patience to hear all my stories, Rizki Amalia for her support to finish my thesis, and Andri, Nana, Icha, Ratna, Wini, Dinda, Lesly, and all ‘97 students, for being good friends of mine.
