ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Praise for Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala and pray shalawat for His prophet Muhammad Salallahu Alaihi Wassalam. Only his blessings bestowed to me that enables me finishing this thesis entitled :

A STUDY ON SOCIAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL CONFLICT OF CLYDE GRIFFITHS AS THE MAIN CHARACTER IN THEODORE DREISER'S "AN AMERICAN TRAGEDY"

This thesis is written as the fulfilment for the Sarjana degree of the English Department, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Airlangga University Surabaya. The problem puts forward in this thesis is the analysis of Clyde Griffiths' social and psychological conflict.

At this moment, I would like to thank my advisor, Dra. S.E. Widjajati, M.S. for her time, patience, guidance and encouragement in helping me finishing this thesis.

I would also like to express my eternal gratitude to my family, my brother Oon and my sister Lia, especially to my father and mother for the continuous love and affection, not to mention the enormous fund provided me all this time.

It will be my pleasure to thank all my lecturers in the English Department, because without them, this thesis will never become one.

Also to all my friends of the 1991 students in English Department, especially 'the one and only' Efi Diah, for the encouragement and the sharing of difficulties, also for being my room-mate!

At last, a very special thanks is for my beloved mas Han for the continuous love and affection, also for being very supportive when I am in need for a friend.
