ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Above all of things, I should thank to God, for His Bless to me, so that I can, finally, finish this thesis.

This thesis was made as the fulfillment of the requirements for Sarjana Degree of the English Language and Literature Study Program, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences in University of Airlangga; which is a task I have to do in the end of my study in English Department.

The title I have chosen for this thesis is The Analysis Of The Distinctive Character Of Richard, The Main Character In Black Boy, by Richard Wright, which has been chosen through many considerations .

So, it's about the distinctive characters owned by the main character in this novel. I'm interested in this case, because I have seen that this novel is enliven by his characters and so that the theme of the story is built through the development of his characters.

Anyway, I should say my gratitude to Ms.Widjajati as my supervisor, for her taking care of me and patience in giving me guidance in writing this thesis properly.

Also for Diah, Arif, Yuni, Deri, Shinta, Nunik, Erita, Yoso, and those that I wish I could mention the name one by one for their support and help which means a lot to me.

Special thanks to Henry and Alex, for without their kindness and help, it will be difficult for me to finish this thesis. May God bless you!!!

The last, I hope this thesis is helpful and able to give the additional knowledge about literature to the readers, especially for the students of English Department in this University.

I believe there is still many mistakes I've made; so, willingly, I've prepared myself to accept critics, suggestions or advice for the improvement in the next writing.
