SECTION I

LISTENING COMPREHENSION

In this section of the test, you will have an opportunity to demonstrate your ability to understand spoken English. There are three parts in this section, with special directions for each part.

Part A

Directions: For each question in Part A, you will hear a short sentence. Each sentence will be spoken just one time. The sentences you hear will not be written out for you. Therefore, you must listen carefully to understand what the speaker says.

After you hear a sentence, read the four choices in your test book, marked (A), (B), (C), and (D), and decide which one is closest in meaning to the sentence you heard. Then, on your answer sheet, find the number of the question and fill in the space that corresponds to the letter of the answer you have chosen. Fill in the space so the letter inside the oval cannot be seen.

Example I

You will hear:

- You will read:
- (A) John outran the others.
 - (B) John was the fastest hunter in the chase.
 - (C) John wasn't the slowest in the race.
 - (D) John was the last runner to finish the race.

Sample Answer

● (B) (C) (D)

The speaker said, "John was the fastest runner in the race." Sentence (A), "John outran the others," is closest in meaning to the sentence you heard. Therefore, you should choose answer (A).

Example II

You will hear:

- You will read:
- (A) Could you help me use the rest?
 - (B) Do you mind using the other desk?
 - (C) Would you mind helping me carry this piece of furniture?
 - (D) If you move my desk, I'll help you with your work.

Sample Answer

(A) (B) ● (D)

The speaker said, "Could you help me move my desk?" Sentence (C), "Would you mind helping me carry this piece of furniture?" is closest in meaning to the sentence you heard. Therefore, you should choose answer (C).

Directions: In the rest of this section you will read several passages. Each one is followed by several questions about it. For questions 31–60, you are to choose the one best answer, (A), (B), (C), or (D), to each question. Then, on your answer sheet, find the number of the question and fill in the space that corresponds to the letter of the answer you have chosen.

Answer all questions following a passage on the basis of what is stated or implied in that passage.

Read the following passage:

John Quincy Adams, who served as the sixth president of the United States from 1825 to 1829, is today recognized for his masterful statesmanship and diplomacy. He dedicated his life to public service, both in the presidency and in the various other political offices he held. Throughout his political career he demonstrated his unwavering belief in freedom of speech, the anti-slavery cause, and the right of Americans to be free from European and Asian domination.

Example I

To what did John Quincy Adams devote his life?

- (A) Improving his personal life
- (B) Serving the public
- (C) Increasing his fortune
- (D) Working on his private business

Sample Answer

(A) ● (C) (B)

According to the passage, John Quincy Adams “dedicated his life to public service.” Therefore, you should choose answer (B).

Example II

The passage implies that John Quincy Adams held

- (A) no political offices
- (B) only one political office
- (C) exactly two political offices
- (D) at least three political offices

Sample Answer

(A) (B) (C) ●

The passage states that John Quincy Adams served in “the presidency and various other political offices.” Therefore, you should choose answer (D).

After you read the directions, begin work on the questions.

Questions 31-35

The White House, the official home of the United States President, was not built in time for George Washington to live in it. It was begun in 1792 and was ready for its first inhabitants, President and Mrs. John Adams, in 1800. When the Adamses moved in, the White House was not yet complete, and the Adamses suffered many inconveniences. Thomas Jefferson, the third president, improved the comfort of the White House in many respects and added new architectural features such as the terraces on the east and west ends. When British forces burned the White House on August 24, 1814, President Madison was forced to leave, and it was not until 1817 that then President James Monroe was able to return to a rebuilt residence. Since then, the White House has been occupied by each U.S. President.

31. Which of the following would be an appropriate title for this passage?
- (A) George Washington's Life in the White House
 (B) The Burning of the White House
 (C) The Early History of the White House
 (D) Presidential Policies of Early U.S. Presidents
32. Why did George Washington NOT live in the White House?
- (A) It had been burned by the British.
 (B) He did not like the architectural features.
 (C) He did not want to suffer the inconvenience that the Adamses had suffered.
 (D) Construction had not yet been completed.
33. It can be inferred from the passage that John Adams was
- (A) the first president of the United States
 (B) the second president of the United States
 (C) the third president of the United States
 (D) the fourth president of the United States
34. According to the passage, which of the following best describes Thomas Jefferson's tenure in the White House?
- (A) He had to flee the White House because of the war with the British.
 (B) He was accepting of the many inconveniences.
 (C) He removed the terraces that had been added by Adams.
 (D) He worked to improve the appearance and convenience of the White House.
35. According to the passage, when James Monroe came back to the White House, it had been
- (A) repressed
 (B) reconstructed
 (C) relocated
 (D) reserved

Questions 36–43

Algae is a primitive form of life, a single-celled or simple multiple-celled organism that is able to conduct the process of photosynthesis. It is generally found in water but can also be found elsewhere, growing on such surfaces as rocks or trees. The various types of algae are classified according to pigment.

Blue-green algae, or Cyanophyta, can grow at very high temperatures and under high-intensity light. This type of algae is the oldest form of life with photosynthetic capabilities. Fossilized remains of blue-green algae more than 3.4 billion years old have been found in parts of Africa.

Green algae, or Chlorophyta, is generally found in fresh water. It reproduces on the surfaces of enclosed bodies of water such as ponds or lakes and has the appearance of a fuzzy green coating on the surface of the water.

Brown algae, or Phaeophyta, grows in shallow, temperate water. This type of algae is the largest in size and is most recognizable as a type of seaweed. Its long stalks can be enmeshed on the ocean floor, or it can float freely on the ocean's surface.

Red algae, or Rhodophyta, is a small, delicate organism found in the deep waters of the subtropics. This type of algae has an essential role in the formation of coral reefs: it secretes lime from the seawater to foster the formation of limestone deposits.

36. What is the author's main purpose?
- (A) To show what color algae is
(B) To differentiate the various classifications of algae
(C) To describe where algae is found
(D) To clarify the appearance of different types of algae
37. Which of the following is NOT true about algae?
- (A) All types have one cell only.
(B) It can be found out of water.
(C) It can use photosynthesis.
(D) It is not a relatively new form of life.
38. The word "pigment" at the end of the first paragraph means
- (A) size
(B) shape
(C) composition
(D) color
39. Algae remnants found in Africa are
- (A) still flourishing
(B) photogenic
(C) extremely old
(D) red in color
40. Green algae is generally found
- (A) on the ocean floor
(B) on top of the water
(C) throughout ponds and lakes
(D) surrounding enclosed bodies of water
41. Brown algae would most likely be found
- (A) on trees
(B) near green algae
(C) on rocks
(D) in the ocean
42. According to the passage, red algae is
- (A) sturdy
(B) huge
(C) fragile
(D) found in shallow water
43. It can be inferred from the passage that limestone deposits serve as the basis of
- (A) coral reefs
(B) red algae
(C) subtropical seawater
(D) secret passages

Questions 44–49

Herman Melville, an American author best known today for his novel Moby Dick, was actually more popular during his lifetime for some of his other works. He traveled extensively and used the knowledge gained during his travels as the basis for his early novels. In 1837, at the age of eighteen, Melville signed as a cabin boy on a merchant ship that was to sail from his Massachusetts home to Liverpool, England. His experiences on this trip served as a basis for the novel Redburn (1849). In 1841 Melville set out on a whaling ship headed for the South Seas. After jumping ship in Tahiti, he wandered around the islands of Tahiti and Moorea. This South Sea island sojourn was a backdrop to the novel Omoo (1847). After three years away from home, Melville joined up with a U.S. naval frigate that was returning to the eastern United States around Cape Horn. The novel White-Jacket (1850) describes this lengthy voyage as a navy seaman.

With the publication of these early adventure novels, Melville developed a strong and loyal following among readers eager for his tales of exotic places and situations. However, in 1851, with the publication of Moby Dick, Melville's popularity started to diminish. Moby Dick, on one level the saga of the hunt for the great white whale, was also a heavily symbolic allegory of the heroic struggle of man against the universe. The public was not ready for Melville's literary metamorphosis from romantic adventure to philosophical symbolism. It is ironic that the novel that served to diminish Melville's popularity during his lifetime is the one for which he is best known today.

44. The main subject of the passage is
- Melville's travels
 - the popularity of Melville's novels
 - Melville's personal background
 - Moby Dick*
45. According to the passage, Melville's early novels were
- published while he was traveling
 - completely fictional
 - all about his work on whaling ships
 - based on his travels
46. In what year did Melville's book about his experience as a cabin boy appear?
- 1837
 - 1841
 - 1847
 - 1849
47. The passage implies that Melville stayed in Tahiti because
- he had unofficially left his ship
 - he was on leave while his ship was in port
 - he had finished his term of duty
 - he had received permission to take a vacation in Tahiti
48. How did the publication of Moby Dick affect Melville's popularity?
- His popularity increased immediately.
 - It had no effect on his popularity.
 - It caused his popularity to decrease.
 - His popularity remained as strong as ever.
49. According to the passage, Moby Dick
- is a romantic adventure
 - is a single-faceted work
 - is a short story about a whale
 - is symbolic of man fighting his environment

Questions 50–56

Medical bills in the United States have risen outrageously since the beginning of the 1960's, and steps need to be taken to reverse this trend or the average American will not be able to afford medical care. The major factor in increasing the cost of medical care has been the dramatic increase in the cost of hospital services. The rise in the cost of hospitalization can be only partly blamed on inflation since hospital bills in the last two decades have risen at a considerably higher rate than inflation.

Another factor cited by doctors as a major cause for the increase in the cost of medical care is malpractice. Increasingly large awards for malpractice have caused doctors to increase their rates to cover the higher malpractice insurance premiums. Because of the large malpractice awards, doctors are also prescribing more conservative and more extensive—and therefore more costly—treatment for patients as a defense against malpractice claims. Whatever the causes of the wild increases in the cost of medical care, the government needs to take strong action before it is too late for Americans.

50. What is the subject of this passage?
- (A) The increasing costs of malpractice insurance
 (B) Factors causing the increase in U.S. medical bills
 (C) Steps for Americans to take to obtain medical care
 (D) The outrageous medical profession
51. According to the passage, how does the author of this passage feel about the tremendous increase in medical bills?
- (A) Disquieted
 (B) Enthusiastic
 (C) Impassive
 (D) Apathetic
52. How does the author seem to feel about the tremendous increase in medical bills?
- (A) Malpractice insurance
 (B) The cost of hospital care
 (C) More conservative and expensive prescriptions by doctors
 (D) Inflation
53. The passage implies that a slowing in inflation would have what kind of effect on medical costs?
- (A) Tremendous
 (B) Nonexistent
 (C) Slight
 (D) Maximum
54. Which of the following is NOT stated in the passage concerning malpractice?
- (A) The increase in malpractice insurance is due to inflation.
 (B) Malpractice insurance premiums are on the increase.
 (C) The increase in malpractice payouts has caused an increase in doctors' bills.
 (D) High malpractice awards have caused doctors to work more conservatively.

55. What is the author's main point in this passage?
- (A) Inflation is having a terrible effect on medical bills.
 - (B) Insurance companies are at fault in raising medical bills.
 - (C) Action is needed to counteract increases in medical bills.
 - (D) Doctors need to work to decrease malpractice.
56. What does the paragraph following this passage most likely contain?
- (A) A discussion of why the average American will soon be unable to afford medical care
 - (B) Forecasts of how inflation will influence medical care in the future
 - (C) The tremendous increases in malpractice insurance
 - (D) The steps the government could take to curb medical costs

Questions 57–60

The Works Progress Administration (WPA), formed during the Great Depression as part of Roosevelt's New Deal, was created with the express intent of putting to work as many as possible of the more than 10 million unemployed in the United States. One of the more controversial programs of the WPA was the Federal Arts Project, a program to employ artists full-time at such tasks as painting murals in libraries, theaters, train stations, and airports; teaching various techniques of art; and preparing a comprehensive study of American crafts. Criticism of the program centered on what was perceived as the frivolity of supporting the arts at a time when millions were starving, industry was sagging, farms were barren, and all that could flourish was bankruptcy courts and soup kitchens.

57. This passage mainly discusses
- (A) the Great Depression
 - (B) Franklin Delano Roosevelt's New Deal
 - (C) the Federal Arts Project
 - (D) bankruptcy courts and soup kitchens
58. According to the passage, the stated purpose of the WPA was to
- (A) create new American masterpieces
 - (B) raise the standard of American art
 - (C) introduce new art techniques to the American public
 - (D) decrease unemployment
59. All the following probably helped to make the Federal Arts Project controversial EXCEPT that
- (A) the Federal Arts Project employed many who would otherwise have been out of work
 - (B) trains and airports were decorated with murals
 - (C) the Federal Arts Project commissioned art works during the Depression
 - (D) a tremendous study of American crafts was produced
60. When the author states that "... all that could flourish was bankruptcy courts and soup kitchens," he probably means that
- (A) banks and restaurants did well during the Depression
 - (B) the poor could not afford to use banks or eat soup
 - (C) the only organizations to thrive were those that dealt with the poor
 - (D) many restaurants declared bankruptcy during the Depression
