ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

After a long and winding journey through hardship, unexpected things and valuable experiences, I am finally able to finish one of the most important steps in the course of my life.

First of all, I would like to express my most sincere and gracious gratitude to Allâh, the Almighty, the Omnipotent, the Omnipresent, the Most Merciful and Beneficent for granting His never ending blessings, His guidance and enlightenment. There will never be enough praises and thanks to Him, the Creator of the Universe and all its contents.

I would also like to express my highest gratitude to all these important persons: my thesis advisor, Drs. Hariawan Adji, ST, MKes. Thank you for not sleeping the whole night to correct the last two chapters. I greatly apologize for the long delay that caused the inconvenience after I submitted the previous chapters.

To all other lecturers in the English Department of Airlangga University: Ms. Widjajati, thank you for your patient to sign the study plan cards that seemed to never end. Mr. Hussein Shahab, who gave many valuable lessons and B score for all the subjects I took from him as the lecturer. Ms. Sudijah, Ms. Christinawati, and many others that can not be mentioned one by one here.

To my family: Ma, Pa, Teddy, Rika and Vera. Ma, thank you for your everlasting love, patient and courage. Get well and take care of your condition. Pa, your hardness has given all of us lessons how to live our lives. Ted, thank you for allowing me to use your computer any time I needed it although it took me more than half an hour to go to your house. I am also thankful for lending me the money when I was sick. I do not know when I can return it. I hope someday I can return all my debts to you. To my two handsome and chubby nephews: Yuri and Martin. To my two sisters: Rika and Vera. Rik, quickly finish your study and Ver, please be patient with Maxine, you are a mother now. May Allah give His enlightenment to you.

Deep appreciation also goes to all the crew of Indonesian Daily News: Ambang, the General Manager and my on and off campus buddy, for accompanying me to undergo the 'minor surgery' and for giving me the sources for my thesis, Widodo (please finish your thesis soon), Tatang, Tri Pamenan, Wisnu, 'the funny guy' Gem, Mas Suk, Mbak Tia and all others that cannot be mentioned here. The three valuable months I spent there working as a translator have given an insight about journalism.

My thankfulness to all my friends of Class '94: Almo (for his companionship; it seems that we are always entangled almost everywhere), Zulvi, Achmas Fanani (the spiritual man), Misnadin (I pray that you will be able to finish your study too although now you already have three loved ones to take care of) and Marcel (my friend since highschool, where are you now mate?). To Roni and Vary who didn't continue their study in the English Department. I hope you two can succeed in your lives. And to all the girls: Diah, Yeni Tur and Marsetio Yeni, Naning, Fitri, Irma, Tri, Titik, Lusi, and many others.

I also want to send my thanks to all employees and newsreaders in TVRI Surabaya: Pak Budi (for your patience and soft words), Pak Hashim, Pak Addin, Pak Dar, Mas Surat (you really are the perfect example of a dedicated reporter, thank you for teaching me about news reporting), Mbak Yesi, Mbak Rosi (for trusting me to help explain the translated scripts), Pak Dar. Mbah, Pak Is (I'm sorry I still have your magazine) and the sacked translator team (Mas Nanang and Yulia). Mas Nanang, good luck with your study in Britain, thank you for teaching me all things about news reporting and translating. Yul, I hope you can find your right person someday.

Lastly but most importantly I want to express my ultimate, sincerest gratitude to my significant other, my first love, 'Tall-Law' for her companionship, advice, and guidance. The past year we've shared is so beautiful and I hope we can be together for the rest of our life. You are the reason why I have to finish my study. You have shown the path that I never knew before, the path to the eternal truth.
