Acknowledgements

The first thing I would like to do after this thesis is finally accomplished is to praise Allah S.W.T for the decision and all strengths that He has given to me. From the beginning until the end of the making of this thesis, I would like to show my gratitude particularly to Dra. Nur Wulan, M.A. as my thesis advisor, who has led and helped me with her great guidance and understanding. This gratitude is also proposed to my lecturers in English Department for their valuable contribution in building my reading and thinking experience.

I would like to thank to my family members especially my mother, brother and sisters who never forget to support and pray for my success. Beside them, I would like to give my respect and thanks to my husband, who always encourages me not to give up before this thesis is well completed.

I would also like to appreciate my best friends especially Rere and Resti, who are never tired to share their time with understanding and experience.
