ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Discourse Analysis, is the analysis of language in USE. Discourse itself includes spoken and written discourse. Text is written discourse. There are several kinds of text, one of them is narrative.

This thesis is about the analysis of narrative structure. In this thesis, the writer tries to apply Labov theory on narrative structure in Laura Ingalls Wilder's book "These Happy Golden Years".

She would thank to her lecturers who have given her useful comments since she writes her proposal. In particular, she would like to thank Dr. Subandi who has lent her his books which given her more perspectives about Discourse Analysis.

She is grateful to her counsellor Dra.Ny Sudijah S, MA who has never been bored to give her comments and information about her thesis.

Finally, she has to thank her family for their never ending love and support, her friends who help her while she write this theses.

She hopes this thesis will be useful for everyone who interested in linguistics especially about discourse analysis and narrative.
