ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My first gratitude goes to Allah SWT who makes all things possible. Alhamdulillah, I am able to get through the hard days in finishing the thesis.

My deepest sincere gratitude and appreciation goes to S.E. Widjajati, Dra., M.S., my thesis advisor, for her guidance and patience in helping me writing my thesis. Thank you very much for the knowledge you have given to me, suggestions and encouragement I needed in the writing of my thesis. I also indebted to Sudijah, Dra., M.S., for being my homeroom teacher, Santiko Budi, Drs., M.A., S. Itafarida, Dra., M. Hum., Siti Parwati Sumarto, Dra., M. Ed., Christinawati, Dra., and many other lecturers that I can't mention here one by one for the knowledges I get while studying in English Department.

To my beloved parents, with all my heart I thank you very much for having teaching and educating me to be strong in life. We have learned many hard things in life we have been through together. To my dearest and sweetest sisters, Oci si Oc-oc, and Ratih "Kribo" , I love you both. I know I could not pass it through without you. I love the care, laughter and joy while we are together, the three of us, "Dor" of the family. To my dear Mas Tatok, I deeply thank you for the courage and supports. I also thank to Mbak Tutik and Mbak Mery for being "my older sisters" that I needed most.

I also indebted many things from my best friends, Ayu', Willy, and Layli. Thank you for being my sisters, for sharing happiness as well as sadness. I wish our relationship will be everlasting as we three dream about. I also thank to Lisa for being my first best friend in FISIP. To Dawim, Mita, and Eni for the wonderful time and the craziness we have passed in Resopombo. Also to Emma, Hwee Fa, Wien, Dewi, and all '93 EDUA-ers, I really appreciate the time we have been going through together. Thank you buddies!

Above all, due to my limited knowledge, I acknowledge that the thesis is far from perfection. Therefore, I welcome and appreciate to any critical suggestions and comments to improve the thesis.
