ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Asung kara! Finally, I can accomplish my thesis. Firstly, my deepest gratitude is respectfully for my Lord of the World, Sang Hyang Widhi, for every single second and every single breath He has given to me. Without You, My Lord, I am nothing of use and am simply dust with nowhere to go. You are my strength.

Secondly, I would like to thank to my beloved mother for the supports, both spiritually and financially. For my sisters, Awe and Wida, and my brother, Putu Gendu', thank you for understanding me during my stressful times and for letting me away from all of you to finish my thesis.

Thirdly, I would also like to express my respectful thanks to my thesis advisor, Lina Puryanti, S.S., M.Hum. for helping me out finishing this thesis and for giving me guidance with patience and wide knowledge. My gratitude also goes to all English Department lecturers for all of their worthy knowledge transformed to me.

For my colleagues at EF English First Surabaya; Jules 'Moo Moo', Adam, Sam, John, Acel, Glenn, etc. thank you for cheering me up with your silly but funny jokes. For my beloved Johnathan, I am speechless. I would like to express millions of thank you for all of your help during writing my thesis, for your shoulders, for your fangs. I know I can rely on you, now and in the future. You are my words and inspiration!

Last but not least, I would like to thank to all of my college mates in Faculty of Letters, Airlangga University, especially for EDSA 2000 for sharing the difficult time by laughter.

I hope that this thesis would give some valuable contributions to its readers.
