*There are hours when there seems to be no
past or future,
Only a present moment of pointed light when you want to burn. When you stretch out your hand
To the flames. There only come once.
Thank God, that kind.*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Above all of things, I should thank to God, for His Bless to me, so that I can, finally, finish this thesis.

This thesis was made as the fulfillment of the requirements for Sarjana Degree of the English Language and Literature Study Program, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences in Airlangga University ; which is a task I have to do in the end of my study in English Department.

The title I have chosen for this thesis is Jane's Dilemma, Love and Social Status in Charlotte Bronte's Jane Eyre.

I would like to express my highest gratitude and respect to Mrs. Christinawati, as my supervisor, for her taking care of me and patience in giving me guidance in writing this thesis properly. I Also would like to express my great respect to Ms. SE. Widjajati and Mrs.S.lta Farida as my thesis examiners who have given me good knowledge and understanding that are useful in completing this thesis.

Also I owe a great deal to my beloved Mas Heri for giving his love, motivation and moral support during the hard time I was working my thesis. It is true, that it will be very difficult for me to finish this thesis without his kindness and help.

The last, I hope this thesis is helpfull and able to give the additional knowledge about literature to the readers, especially for the students of English Department in Airlangga University.

I believe there is still many mistakes I have made, so willingly, I have prepared myself to accept critics, suggestion or advises for the improvement in the next writing.
