ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the name of Allah SWT and always Praise be to him, this thesis eventually, can be finished in order to fulfill the partial requirement of finishing the study in the English Department of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences in Airlangga University.

I would like to thank my thesis advisor, Drs. Jurianto, who has given a lot of contributions and suggestions throughout the completion of this thesis since without him I never could finish my thesis.

The finishing of the thesis cannot be done without the guidance and support from many sides. Therefore, in this opportunity, the writer would like to greatly thank:

1. Dra. S.E Wijayati M.S as the head of English Department of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences of Airlangga University.
2. Dra. Sudijah, Drs. Hariawan Adji and all the lecturers of English Department of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Airlangga University for the knowledge given to me.
3. Syaiful's family, Ganda's family, and Agus's family for giving the writer a permission to choose them as the respondents of the study.
4. My family, my sister Nur, my brother Adi, my nephew Oky, my cousin Rodiyah, my sister in law Eni, especially to my father and mother for the continuous loves and affections.
5. My best friends Esti, Tri, Rike, Desi, Fitri, Diah, Irma, Naning and all of my friends of the English Department '94 of Airlangga University for their kindness and supports.
6. My friends at the Ekanita Dormitory, Endah, Ita, Yudha, Yoshi, Tiwi, Fatiya, Wiwin especially to my roommates Lia and Mei for the prayers and kindness.
7. My friends at Unitomo University, especially Dian, Kholil, Tri, Syafi'i, Sugik, and Arik for the kindness and help.

I realize that this thesis is still far from being perfect and satisfactory. Therefore, I will be grateful to accept and appreciate constructive suggestions and criticisms which are given to this thesis.
