ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In The Name of Allah The Beneficent and The Merciful

All praises and gratitude be to Allah Subhanahuwata'ala whose strength and power is most high exalting what human may appreciate. For it is only by His deep care, love and mercy, the most sincere, my spirit keeps renewed and my faith shall be strengthened from time to time. All praises be to the most beloved Prophet Muhammad Sholallaahu 'alaihi wasallam for it is only through the great sacrifices of him, his family and disciples, we receive a living and complete guidance to achieve Allah's way.

My deepest appreciation is for Drs. Sumitro for his guidance and patience in the process of accomplishing this thesis during his busy time, especially, for having taught me in a most creative way, by which I finally find the truth. My word of thanks goes to all of the lecturers of the English Department, especially, to Drs. Amir Fatah, M. Hum. who had guided me to read the scientific map of Tasawuf that widen the horizon of my knowledge.

My thanks are continually expressed to my great family: Bapak, Ibu, all of my brothers and sisters, especially, to my beloved husband Aji. It is your endless support and sincere prayer, which leads me to gain any of the worthy things in my life. My very special thanks goes also to Mas Harnang for the books and the courage he continually gives to me during this thesis writing.

Finally, I realize how this thesis is far from perfection. And that the result of this study is basically relative and possible to alter anytime. Therefore, I open my self for any positive criticism or suggestion to accomplish this thesis.
