ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and the foremost, I would say Alhamdulillah, my deepest gratitude to Allah SWT, the Almighty and Merciful and most worthy of praise for giving me strength through all the hard times I have ever had. I believe without Your guidance and blessing, I cannot accomplish this thesis.

I would also like to express my deep gratitude to all lectures of English Department of Airlangga University who have taught and guided me during the study and give me invaluable knowledge. Especially for my thesis advisor Lina Puryanti S.S, M Hum., thank you for the prudent guidance and the helpful references. My gratefulness also goes to my academic advisor, Dra. Sudijah S, M.A., for her guidance during these five years.

Million of thanks go to my Bapak and Ibu, who have given me so much love, time, energy and encouragement. I am very grateful to accept such enduring patience and support. I also thanks to my sister Mbak Novie and my brother in law Mas Dedy, my younger brothers Yuslich and Yestha and my super little cutes nephew and niece Ihsan and Asa, who make me cheerful when at home and, also thanks to Mas Geng and Mbak Juni who have been very helpful and care to me as their siblings.

Finally, to all students of English Department's class of 2001, thank you so much for the wonderful friendship, discussion, and togetherness. You make my moments full of laughter and joyfulness. Thank you so much for my silly and happy friends Diah, Nunu, Mbak Bud, Niken, Truly, Nita and Tanti. You know girls, we have a special friendship, I hope it will long lasting until we get married, have kids and get old. Special thanks to Dini and Nina, thank you for your valuable advices, so I can write many new ideas on my thesis.
