Alhamdulillah Robbil Alamin, First, all praises to ALLAH S.W.T Lord of the world, I know without His blessing I couldn't finish this thesis. I lay my life on Him, He always reminds me anytime and anywhere because I feel nothing when I'm away from Him. Second, sholawat and salam hopefully still to our prophet Muhammad S.A.W, because of him we can differentiate which are the right things and which are not.

I'm greatly indebted to Mrs. Anna Dewanti, Dipl.Tesl for her invaluable assistance in accomplishing this thesis. My special appreciation would be for her patience in giving me advice and support. I owe special gratitude to all lecturers at the English Department, Faculty of Letters, Airlangga University for their guidance during the academic years. Thank you for their advice and lectures, I get much through their lectures.

Thank you for the head master of the "Lukman Al-Hakim" Elementary School, who allowed me to make a research there. Mrs Rini as the English teacher who helps me manage the students. Of course, for all 3 B students, as my respondents for two months, I've taught you. I think, You were sweet and smart students. I was really helpful.

My greatest appreciation would be to my late Mom (I miss you so much) and my Dad for their enormous love and support. God must really love me because He gave me such great parents like you. I really do appreciate their tremendous affection and care that make me keep up the space, even when things seem worse to be faced. To thank them in words would never be enough, Mom and Dad... at all times, in every way possible, I do love you. I'm so proud to be your child! For Mbak Aim (my late sister), Mas Farid, Nanung, Iis, and my little sister Anik-Hughes. Thank you for being my nicest and kindest brother-sister. I can't imagine having done these without you all! I'm happy to be a member of this family.
