ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

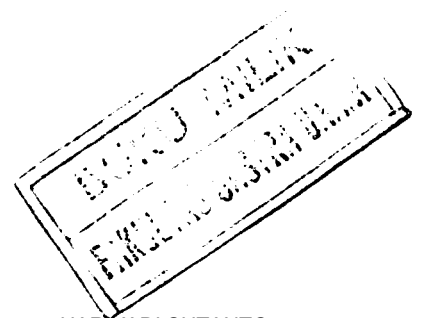

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord God Almighty in the name of Jesus Christ. In this first occasion, I would like to thank to Jesus Christ, my God, who has always been with me in every step I made. I thank You Lord for providing me all I need in finishing my study. This is all because of You.

I also would like to give my thanks to my thesis advisor, Mr. Deni Arnos Kwary, who has guided me patiently to finish what I have started. I would not be able to step forward without your help Sir. Thank you, I appreciate it very much.

To all my linguistics friends of 1997, there is nothing that I can say except "you are all the best!" I thank you all for our friendship these years. I hope it will never end until we grow old. Especially to Festya, Meithy, and Fadjar K.S, I owe you thousands thanks for giving me the idea of this research.

In this occasion, I also would like to say thank you to all lecturers of linguistics and especially to Mrs. Christinawati who has been a good advisor for all these years. Thank you for being great lecturers.

The last but not the least, I would like to present my greatest thanks to my beloved father and my dearest mom. I owe you something that I can not even pay with anything of me. Thank you for trusting and leading me to be like who I am now.

By this, I also would like to mention a lovely name that means very much for me, so I can finish this study: Lilly Yuana. Thank you for the encouragement and all the help that you have done for me; including borrowing me the computer and teaching me how to operate it.

Thank you all. God bless you.
