Acknowledgments

First of all, I would like to praise the Lord, for without His graceful benevolence, this thesis would never be accomplished. In preparing this thesis, I have been helped by many parties whom I can never thank enough. Firstly is Bu Diah Ariani Arimbi S. S. , M. A. , my thesis advisor, whose helpful guidance and great understanding support me a lot in the making of this work from the beginning up until the end. My gratitude to the lecturers of the English department for their unsung contribution to my horizon of thinking.

Thanks to Donny and Ermanto who have been a great help to me with the computer and its technical problems, my brother, Yongky, for letting me use his access to Petra Library, Vivi '95 for the helpful tips on making thesis, my friends Audy in Kualalumpur, Tini, Merry, Yulie, Jessy, Irene, and Novi from Jakarta for the distant support, and to my best buds Heryo, Yacob, and Sugeng.

Special gratitude and appreciation also goes to my friends of EDSA'96 who have been tremendously fun and exciting in sharing the ups and down of higher learning.

Lastly to my family, mother, father, my aunts and uncles for their supportive encouragement in finishing my study.
