ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In this great occasion I direct my deep gratitude to Allah S.W.T, The Supreme Being of the universe, who has made me successful in finishing my thesis. I, without His love and charity, can't finish my thesis which is the final requirement to get the award of the Sarjana Sastra at the English Department, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Airlangga University.

I do realize that the writing of this thesis involves many sides either direct or indirect, material or spiritual. Consequently, I also convey many sincere gratitude to persons who have given me some help in the writing of this thesis.

Among the person to whom I wish to express my special gratitude are :

1. Dra. Christinawati, my advisor, who has given me a lot of advice and spent much of her time correcting the manuscript of this thesis.
2. All the lecturers of the English Department, Airlangga University, who have taught me a great deal of knowledge, so that I am able to understand literature as well as to understand English.

3. My dearest parents, brother and sister, who financially and mentally have supported me all the time so that I can finish my study.
4. My beloved fiance, who has given me encouragement so that I can write this thesis enthusiastically.
5. Last but not least all of my friends for their hearty supports.

I always hope their kindness will be rewarded by Allah S.W.T, the Supreme Being.

I realize that this thesis still far from being perfect. Because of that condition, I will accept and appreciate any suggestions and criticism which are given to this thesis.
