First of all, I praise the Almighty God for His blessing gives me strength and spirit to finish this thesis in due time.

Special acknowledgement should be made of the help of Dra. S.E. Widjajati M.S as my advisor whose patience, valuable guidance and encourageous support have helped me to solve my thesis problem. Thanks are also due to Drs A.Rachman and Dra. Christinawati from whom I get some references that are useful for my thesis analysis. Many thanks also to all lecturers of English Department from whom I get valuable knowledge.

I am particularly grateful to my beloved parents, grandma, brothers and sister whose encourageous support and endless love greatly motivate and encourage me to finish my study.

The last is my thanks to my best friend , Anna who has contributed her opinion to improve my thesis, Noor, Julita, Hanny, Elisa and Hery for togetherness during the time I study in English Department. God bless you all!

This thesis presents a simple interpretation of the novel of Richard Wright. Its simplicity is due to my limited knowledge. To be honest, this thesis is far from being perfect and still needs a great deal of improvements. Thus, I welcome the readers' critique and opinions to improve this thesis.
