I dedicate this thesis to my beloved father and mother who have taught me about the importance of education.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to thank God for His mercy that allows me to accomplish this thesis writing. I realize that without His bliss this thesis will not be completed.

Then I would like to thank to my thesis advisor, Dra S. Itafarida M.Hum who has been patiently guiding me in the process of writing the thesis. Her opinions and advises are really helpful to me. And also I would like to thank to the board of examiners Dra S.E. Widjajati M.S and Dra Christinawati for their willingness to examine the thesis and all the lecturers that have been very helpful in my study in English Department of Airlangga University. Their efforts has become a very meaningful influences in the development of my knowledge about English studies especially the literature as my main concern. Of course, my knowledge which is achieved through their roles is an important source for me to be applied in the field of work.

I also would like to thank to all my friends through which their relationships with me, since the begining until the end of my study in English Department, have helped to construct my knowledge about English studies especially literature either through formal or informal ways.

Last but not least, I would like to thank to my family, my father and mother, my brothers and sisters who have kept supporting me to finish my study. Their roles are always like an "oasis in the desert" to me. They are always be my source of power to live, my reason to exist.
