ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, the writer would like to thank The Merciful Allah, to whom she always remembers in difficult and happy moments.

The writer owes a special debt to Mrs. Anna Dewanti as her thesis advisor for having counseled her inspite of her activities. The writer's appreciation is also directed to Mrs. Iwasaki the correspondent of Media Indonesia in Tokyo for her inspiration of writing the thesis and information about journalism to the writer. In writing the thesis, the writer has also had the benefit of help from Mr. Don Kardono the leader of Oposisi tabloid editorial staff, for kindly replying her inquiry.

The writer dedicates her deepest gratitude to her parents, for their support, attention, and prayer. She also dedicates special thankfulness to her twin sisters for her best love and the lovely time she has shared together. Appreciation is also directed to her sweet little sister.

The great respect is specially addressed to her best friends; Verina for sharing happy and sad time during her study in English Department, and Astrid for showing the philosophy of life. The writer also would like to thank all friends who have been very helpful; Fitria, Istiqomah, Siti Juwariyah, Sri Lestari, Olivia, Rahmania, Anshori, Andi and the others whose names cannot be mentioned here. Special thanks to nice Chinese songs which had accompanied the writer during her time arranging the thesis.
