ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Writing a thesis is surely a life challenging experience to me. I discover so many things that I am able to finish this thesis, but in the end, I find myself grow more mature compare to where I started. It does sound cheesy for some people, but it is true. From where I am now, I can gladly say that it is over and I cherish every moment I had gone through.

First of all, I would like to dedicate my deepest gratitude to the Almighty One and the Savior of the soul, Allah SWT, who always gives me salvation and guidance in every single breath so that this thesis can be accomplished as the partial fulfillment of the requirements for Sarjana degree of English Department, Faculty of Humanities, Airlangga University, Surabaya.

This thesis is a special dedication for my parents: Sawali and Suyatmini; my mother-in-law Rohaya and my father-in-law Bali Supratman; my beloved husband; Muhammad Reza .S.T.; and my child Danish who was still in my belly until he was born for their big support, everlasting prayer and reinforcement in accomplishing this thesis.

I also would like to extend my greatest gratitude to: Mrs. Erlita Rusnaningtias, M.A., as my thesis advisor, for her valuable guidance, suggestions, insightful comments, and smart questions in the process of accomplishing this thesis. I also would like to thank to all lecturers and staff in this faculty who help and support me during my study in this university.

A very special appreciation is addressed to all students of AJ 2010 of the English Departments, especially my best friend Anggry Chrisma, Maria K Aghasta, Wenny Anzola, Dian Farida Hanum, Irene Anastasis, Ajeng Mustika, Taruli Elbina, and Dwi Hendry, for their magnificent encouragements both in accomplishing this thesis and in completing the Sarjana degree.

Last but not least, I also would like to give my gratitude to everyone whom I cannot mention one by one. Thank you for everything you have contributed.

The writer,

Ucik Sulistiyawati
