ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I want to thank God, Jesus Christ, for His blessings for giving me strength to finish this thesis. I could not have made it without His help.

I am very grateful to my parents for what they have done for me all this time: their support, patient and their prayers. I could not finish without them. And I am proud to be their daughter.

I want to thank my thesis advisor, S. E. Widjajati, dra., M. S. for her guidance and support. I could not make this far without her. My thanks also go to all the lecturers of English Department of Airlangga University who have given me support and knowledge. Saying "Thank you" would not be enough compared to what they have done for me. Thank you to Guntur and his wife, Nastalia for being good friends when I need them most. Thank you to dr. Cicilia for the support she has given me.

Last but not least, I certainly want to thank Sophie, Rosa, and Emma for their support & encouragement when I need them most. Thank you to all the students of 1997 English Department for being good friends and for all the support. To all of you, whom I can not mention one by one, "Thank you", I could not do without you.

Finally, I realized that this thesis is far from being perfect and I would appreciate any critics, opinion, comments and suggestions.
