ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, the writer wishes to express her gratitude to God the Almighty for His secret blessing and the Blessed Virgin Mary for her assistance so that she can finish doing her thesis.

The writer is especially grateful to Drs. Adiono, M.A, Ph.D. for his guidance, support, and willingness to give a thesis assistantship in the course of his full schedule and his family who is very helpful to her.

The writer is also grateful to Mrs. Christinawati who always give big support to her and to all lectures of the English Department who have broadened her mind of the world of language.

The writer is grateful to her family who has been most patient and understanding: Ibu, Bapak, Mas Kokok – for fixing the computer - and Dian – for typing the draft. For their assistance and encouragement over these many months and for the joys, which they manage to provide at almost all times, the writer is most gratified.

The writer owes special thanks to all of 1995's students of the English Department who have been good friends for her: Lani, Santi and Bella for being such nice friends; Sri Lestari and Dina for their inspirations; Reni, Ririn, Olip, Wiwik, Fifi, Yuli, Khuzaiyin Anshori, Wiwin, Istiqomah, Siti, et al.

Finally, the writer is particularly thankful to members of Gemma Inventa, KMK St. Aloysius Gonzaga, PSM Universitas Airlangga, Cantores Dei and AMIGOZ for sharing happiness and sadness during her study. Her appreciation goes beyond language.
