ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

‘Alhamdulillah’, I praise to Allah SWT, who has been bestowing the strength, the ease, and other amazing favors to me, so that I can face and pass many unpredictable obstacles until I finally can end up this thesis.

My great gratitude goes to Mr. Jurianto, M. Ed., as my thesis advisor, who has been so patiently guiding me in accomplishing the thesis. His advice was really a helpful contribution to gain my best of work. I also grateful to all of the lecturers of English Department, Airlangga University. There are no enough appreciation words that can describe their goodness to share the knowledge during my academic years. Hopefully, the knowledge that they have transmitted will bring any benefits for me now and then.

This thesis is dedicated to all of my family. I deeply thanks to Papa and Mama, who always pray and support me to be better than before, Mbak Reni, Mas Win, Mas Iwan, mbak Win, Mas Pungki, Mbak Inten, and especially for Mas Dwi Susilo the invaluable assistants and support since the beginning of thesis writing until now. I also thanks to Wini and her friends to help me find the appropriate respondents to complete the data. It will be more difficult for me to finish this if I did not meet someone like her.

I will not be able to forget whatever that has occurred between me and my best partners: Mitta, Meg, Pipit, Wahida, Yani, Mbak Andri, and Ira. Thank you for sharing the happiness and the sadness, the laughter and the tears, gals. I think, what we have passed so far have strengthened us to be good friends all these past years.

The last but not least, I also thanks to all EDSA 99's students and others that cannot be mentioned one by one for the togetherness they bring. Actually, there are no enough words to paint how all of you are really wonderful and meaningful to me.

I realize that my thesis is still really far from perfection. There are still many mistakes and lacks found inside this thesis. I, therefore, will sincerely receive any constructive comments and critiques for all of the improvement in the future.
