ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillah wa syukurillah is the best way to express my gratitude to Allah SWT, The Almighty, for the blessing, beneficence, mercy and strength have been given to me while working on this thesis from the first time I poured my ideas until I've finished it.

I'm very grateful to my thesis advisor, Mrs. S. Itafarida, Dra. M.Hum. for the helps and guidance in writing the thesis. I am indebted her for her advice and encouragement. I'd like also to thank to Mr. Santiko Budi, Drs. M.A for his comments on my work which are worth to be considered. It is a pleasure to give my gratitude to Ms. S.E Wijayati, Dra. M.S.; Mrs. Sumarto, Dra. M.Ed.; Mrs. Christinawati, Dra.; Mr. Sumitro, Drs., for bringing me to the wide world of English literature. I'd like to thank to all other lecturers of English Department for teaching me all knowledge about English language and literature.

I'd like to give a big thanks to my family, especially to my beloved mother for her kind attention and endorsement during I was working on this final assignment; for beloved late father who had always encouraged me to do my best on my study : I've made it, Bapak, and I'll never stop trying to be your number one ! For my only sister, Sari, thanks for the jokes and laughter to make me relax. For my cousins, Mbak Heni, Mbak

Shanthy and especially for Kiky who has been my barometer on finishing this thesis, Thanks for our 'friendship'.

It is a pleasure to thank all my friends in English Department especially for the '95 students. For Yuri, Dina, Uyung, Itsna, thanks for being my classmates for all these years and also for every discussion both in and outside the class. For Ririn, thanks for listening, it's very helpful for me. For Nuning, Irma, Ifah, Verina, Reni, and all my friends that cannot be mentioned one by one, thanks for everything.

. Finally, I acknowledge that this thesis is far from perfection. Therefore, any critical opinions, suggestions and comments would be much appreciated.
