ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First at all, I would like to praise The Lord, Jesus Christ for without his graceful benevolence this thesis would never be accomplished. In preparing this thesis, I have been helped by many parties whom I can never thank enough. Firstly is Mrs. Sudijah, my thesis advisor, whose helpful guidance and great understanding support me a lot in the making of this work from beginning until the end. Thank you very much, Mam.

I am also express my gratitude to all lecturers of the English Department especially to Mr. Husein Shahab, Mrs. Anna Dewanti, Mr. Jurianto and Mr. Deny Arnos Kwary, who have guided me during my wonderful academic years.

My special thanks go to mama and papa who raise me with a deep care, patience and love and who always embed in my mind the importance of education; my brothers (Andre, Jonny, Tommy, and Jemmy) and sister (Lusy) for their prayers and supports both matterially and immaterially. I love you all.

Finally I would like to give my warmest thank and love to all my friends in English Department students of 96 for their loving and caring to each other, special thanks go to Erlyana, Yenny , Ika and Hermin for always sharing the joys, happiness and laughter together. I am proud of you all. Also for Sulis, thank for your sharing before my thesis examination.

This work is far from perfect and therefore, all constructive criticisms on this thesis would be appreciated.
