ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Above all, I pronounce 'Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds', for it was only through His Hands, I could accomplish the thesis with hardly any substantial difficulty.

My deepest gratitude is presented to Drs. Husein Shahab, my advisor, for his reliance upon my writing the thesis, his valuable guidance and constant encouragement to improve it.

I would like to thank to the family of Drs. Abdul Manaf who have been very kindly in providing me with the important textbooks used in this thesis.

Finally I also would like to express my appreciation to my beloved mother, my husband, parents-in-law, all my family, and friends for their support, praying and understanding.
