Acknowledgements

First of all, I wish to thank The Merciful God for giving me strength to finish this thesis. I do always praise and thank Him for making me the one who accepts much affection and support from my family.

I owe a great gratitude to my Mom for always being there when I was down. For Mbak Mik, thank you for letting me be a dreamer. For Mbak En, my wonderful sister, thank you so much for spending your valuable time for me. We both know that without your unstinted assistance this thesis would never have finished in time.

My word of appreciation goes to Pak Hari for his patience, carefulness, and suggestions in guiding me to do my best for this thesis. My gratefulness is also expressed to all of the English Department lecturers who have brought me to the gate of higher knowledge.

For Mbak Watik, thank you for introducing and taking me to the informant. I look forward to accepting your severe criticisms and advices. For Mbak Ema, thank you for giving me support to finish my thesis as soon as possible.

My deepest thanks are also to Dana and Ir. Rahmat Taufik Hidayat family, Grace and Ir. Joseph Hutapea family, and Yola and Ir. Markus Panggabean family. Without their help, I would never have made this thesis.

Last, but not by means least, thanks are expressed to all the 96's students. For Nanik, Yeni, Indah, Muladi, Diah, Uda, Susi, and Eli thanks for sharing laughter during our togetherness. My special deepest thank is to Avy. She is such a dear friend who is always ready to give her hands to me in times of trouble. I will always remember her sincerity.

I am aware of the limitations of this thesis in spite of my efforts to make it as useful as possible. I would, therefore, be most grateful if readers would supply me with any corrections or comments that might help me improve this thesis.
