God commands you to do good in return for good, and (if you can avail yourself of an opportunity of doing more than mere justice) to do good without having received any benefit, and (if it befits the occasion) you should bestow gifts with the natural kindness of kindred; and He forbids exceeding the limits of justice and directing goodness to a wrong end, the carrying to excess or fixing upon an improper object the feeling of tenderness.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

First of all, with all my heart I would like to thank you God for without Your love and guidance, this thesis would not have been possible. And if it were not for Your guidance and cause, this humble contribution would have never become reality. Alhamdulillah.

Throughout the conduct of my thesis, I have been indebted to my thesis advisor, Mrs. Siti Parwati Sumarto D., Dra., M. Ed., for her guidance and giving helpful suggestions and comments about ways in which the thesis might be improved. To me, she was not a mere thesis advisor, she was a "mother" who also taught me the art of living the good life during the consultation.

It is also my pleasant duty to thank all of the lecturers of English Department , especially Mr. Santiko Budi, Drs., M.A., Mr. Sumitro, Drs., Miss S.E. Widjajati, Dra., M.S., Mrs. Christinawati, Dra., Mrs. Ita Farida Dra., M. Hum, Mr. A. Rahman, drs., and Mrs. Nur Wulan, dra., who introduced me into the world of literature and shaped me into learning more and more about it.

I owe my parents a debt I can never adequately repay. I am deeply grateful for their endless support, pray and love. And the most important thing is, in a firm but loving ways, they have insisted me that I be moral and that I know why.

I also wish to thank my brothers and sister, Dido, Ipong, and Dewi who always cheered me up at the time I was conducting my thesis. To Lia, my "sister", to Om Harun, to James who allowed me to use his place for several times, and to Emma '93 who suddenly became my very close friend during the process of my thesis.

And finally, I particularly want to thank my beloved husband, Suharianto drg., who was not only accompanying me in conducting my thesis but engaged in and listened to my endless discussions on my analysis and helped me in other ways more than words can say. I am most fortunate to have such husband as him.
