

ABSTRACT

The mass media have important role in conveying information to the public. One of them of mass media is the online media. Yomiuri.co.jp and Asahi.com are online media site of Japanese national newspapers. The events which was quite undue the spotlight by media throughout the year 2014 is an event of resignation double the minister of Economy, Trade and Industry Yuko Obuchi and minister of Justice Midori Matsushima. In this message, look for the differences in construction by each media. So, this research aims to determine how the intentions and motive of journalist and how different construction done by the media. This research used theory of discourse analysis Teun A. Van Dijk.

Keywords: mass media, online media, Yomiuri, Asahi, Yuko Obuchi, Midori Matsushima, motive, construction, and discourse analysis Teun A. Van Dijk.

