ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The very first gratitude is for Allah the Almighty, who gives me chances to do a lot of preparations and also blessing me with health. Finally I can finish this thesis with full of hard work and gratefulness in every lines that I wrote. Second of all my great gratitude is intended for Miss Viqi Ardaniah, a M. A. Linguistic as my best advisor whom gives me time and guidance, tolerate every single weakness of me that is probably intolerable. Deep thankful feeling that I experience such flash moments with her but the quality of time is beyond everything. Thank you to her for trusting me in finishing this thesis by the limitation of time. Thanks for all advice, care and critiques.

Further gratitude is for my beloved parents who always support me, sending their pray all the time. Thanks to Mama and Papa. I feel grateful for all their support, especially their financial support which is given regardless time and place. Thank you for understanding me when I have limited time to share moments while I am concentrating on finishing this thesis, without you, I am nothing. This hard work is for you, and I hope it can be a good start for me to show how you will be proud of me in the future. Thanks for my little Brother, Awang who sends his pray to me all the time and always motivate me to finish this thesis. Special thanks for Moch Syahri Romdhani who always supports me in everything I do despite time and place. This thesis is also for you who love debate, for us who love debate. I hope you are proud of me because you are one of the motivations. Thanks for all prayers that you sent.

This thesis is a reflection of what I know and what I master about an activity that I loved during my years in collage. Debate is one of the media for me to see the world wider and see things deeper. Debate is such blessing for me and such a priceless experience. Debating society of Airlangga University is such a home and I am proud to be one of the initiator of this community after vacuum for some years. Debate sends me to places and meets a lot of wonderful people, great speakers and awesome thoughts. My great gratitude also for Ma'am Arofah, as my beloved guardian teacher who Introduces me to Debate. No coaches and fewer competitions were two things that made me less develop in debate. My gratitude and best wishes for Ma'am U.N Dian for her support so that in Airlangga University I got better chances in Debate. This thesis is aimed for debaters, for learners for coaches for teachers and anyone who wants to know about debate and specifically who wants to know about how arguments look like based on Toulmin's theory. This study is intended to see the effective reasoning and how anyone generally can create an arguments and how to analyze arguments.

My biggest thanks also for Airlangga debaters family, Koko Ricky, Kiwar, Weka, Syifa, Nastiti, Rian, Verba, Titha, Abdi, Boyke, Cahya, Stella, all Surabaya debaters, Ci Hadi, Raga and David. Thanks to Mas Ope, Ms Umar and others who gives me such wonderful experience in debate. Thanks for Rara, Kholida, Woro, Farah and Mrs. Ida

The Aim of argument, or of discussion, should not be victory, but progress.
