

SYNOPSIS

Kirana Ferisha, usually called as Sasha, is a Senior High School Student. Sasha is not a feminine woman. She is ignorant toward her appearance and behavior. She also likes outdoor activities. Although her parents and her friends try to remind her that she should be more feminine, but she ignores them because she is comfortable becoming a non-feminine woman.

She changes her mind after she meets Arnold, a handsome and a rich man. Sasha finds that Arnold only likes a woman who is feminine. So, after that moment Sasha struggles to become a feminine woman. She learns how to cook, how to eat, how to speak, how to walk, and how to laugh in feminine ways. She changes her appearance to become fashionable. She even leaves her hobbies such as basketball, boxing and rock climbing although she really loves doing those activities. In short, Sasha forces herself to become a person that goes against her inner self to gain Arnold's attention.

After all her effort to please Arnold, Sasha finds that all she is doing to become feminine is in vain. Instead of loving her, Arnold loves Dina, an authentic feminine woman. Apparently Arnold approaches Sasha because Dina asks him to. Arnold agrees to do what Dina asks because Dina promises Arnold that after he takes revenge on Sasha, Dina will agree to be his girlfriend. Dina is jealous toward Sasha because Dina's boyfriend, Roland, loves Sasha.

Sasha is very messed up after she knows that Arnold only plays her. But slowly she can handle her feeling and forgets Arnold, but Sasha is not leaving her new knowledge about how to become a feminine woman. So now Sasha becomes a woman with feminine appearance but her behavior is not totally feminine because she still loves outdoor activities.

After knowing the truth about Dina and Arnold, Roland decides to break up with Dina and utters his affection toward Sasha. Sasha realizes that she loves Roland too. Then they make relationship. Whereas Dina and Arnold cannot continue their relationship because Dina does not love him.
