AKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Alhamdulillah, praise be Allah SWT, the Almighty, due to His gracious and merciful that the writer could finish this thesis earlier. His blessing always strengthens the writer to face every single thing coloring the thesis writing process. There are times when the writer has only Allah and herself. Every single time the writer would give up, no matter how many troubles have come up, she have always found ways out through her belief that Allah will always be by her side. No matter how hard life is going to be, the writer always believes that Allah has already prepared every best thing for her.

Secondly, the writer would like to express her gratitude to her great thesis advisor; Masitha A.S., M. Hum. To be true, the writer is very grateful for getting her as the thesis advisor. Her support and guidance much helped the writer during the process of thesis writing. Her input and suggestion were the biggest inspiration for the writer in accomplishing this thesis. From her thesis advisor, the writer has learned to not give up on everything as long as we are in right side.

Thirdly, the writer would like to express her very great gratitude to her beloved mom and ayah for their greatest love. The writer on purpose did not tell her mom about the earlier thesis writing since her mom has always been the most concerned one about the writer's life. Her love for the writer is always the greatest love of all. To the writer's beloved ayah, the writer would like to thanks for his endless love and support.

Last but not least, the writer would like to thank to her entire best friends: Ziya, Shinta, Pupuk, Momo, Intan, the entire English Department Students year 2011 and also all d'Ongkoster Karmen III/18-B, who have always supported the writer during her up and down. And also thank you to the entire English Department Students year 2012 for their willingness to contribute and to be the participants of this study.
