

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

In the writer's opinion, having an internship at EF English First was a really worthy experience. The writer learned a lot from those experiences. After finish his internship at EF English First the writer had made so much improvement especially in communication skill and marketing. He met a lot of people with many characteristics as his customer at EF English First. During the internship, the writer not only learned about EF product knowledge, but also how to communicate with other people by talking to customer or the other staff in EF English First. He also experienced talking English formally in the office.

The writer realized that nowadays English is very essential thing in this world. It was experienced by the writer when he had his internship. Working in an English school made him would be able to speak in English in some situations because some of his working parents and the teacher are from another country. He also had a lot of relations not only from Indonesia, but also from outside Indonesia such as Australia, Canada, USA, and United Kingdom. By the internship, the writer got his full-time job as a course consultant at EF English First Klampis. It is an honor for the writer to be a part of English First.

The writer assume that EF English First is a suitable place to have an internship for English Diploma major. The writer definitely suggests his juniors in college to have their internship at EF English First. By having an internship at EF English First, the writer can apply the subjects that he can learned at college. It was a great experiences that the writer might not get in other internship places. Due to its great achievement in facilitating the writer in doing his internship, he hopes that EF English First will cooperate with