

Nama : Anita Surayyah

NIM : 151511813040

Angkatan : 2015

Judul Tugas Akhir : A Final Report Writing News for Executive Office of the President

Dosen Pembimbing : Rina Saraswati, S.S., M.Hum

Abstrak : The first is the impact of journalists in the Executive Office of the President. The writers understands what is the importance and effect given by Journalists. As when writing and publishing state news, it is Journalists who have an important role to direct public opinion.

Next up is about the problems Journalists face when writing news on the Executive Office of the President. Journalists are required to write and publish news that is interesting and fast. In the application of these provisions, the writer experiences some difficulties. The writer must understand first what kind of news characters commonly published, the structure of a good news that applied for Executive Office of the President. Then the writer must balance with the accuracy of the information obtained and also the speed.

The strategy to overcome the problem of writing news for an Executive office of the President, writer apply some code of ethics of journalist like accuracy, social responsibility, and public interest. And most important is the news structure chart that is inverted pyramide obtained by the writer of her supervisor.