

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

East Java Government Culture and Tourism Services was formed helping East Java Government to develop and promote tourism object and culture in East Java. The writer did internship as a staff culture, art and movie. Culture, art and movie department has three sections to help the implementation of duties and functions. After finishing her internship, the writer got some experiences that she never obtained before. Those experiences were important for the writer, because the writer could apply all abilities from English Diploma Department for her internship.

The writer did the internship at East Java Government Culture and Tourism Service for a month as a culture, art and movie staff. She got some experiences during the internship not only a skills, but also she got knowledge about social aspects. When doing the internship the writer learned how to work in group, communicate, and adapt to a new environment. The writer thought that the experience was important. The writer hoped what she got during the internship would be usefull. Later on, when the writer gets a job, she can apply them in new situation which consist of unpredictable moment.

During her internship, she learned more about culture,art and movie department in East Java Government Culture and Tourism Service. The writer had an opportunities about how to translate text, how to manage time effective, how to edit some text from website, how to speak with older people and how to give information to foreigner. The writer had many experiences and knowledge which can be used as references to improve her skill and ability. The writer also learned how to work under pressure and at limited time. It made the writer more disciplined and focused on working.

The writer suggests to East Java Government Culture and Tourism Service especially in culture, art and movie department to improve staff performance and more focus on working to make the job more easier and quicker done. Besides, she also hope for English department especially for material about English for Hotel and Tourism to learn more about tourism in East Java. For the conclusion, doing internship at the East Java Government Culture and Tourism Service has made the writer ready when she has to come to the real work place someday. The writer gained her knowledge and skill hopefully they will be an unforgettable experiences for the writer.