

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

Information is very important in the world, because it leads to an increase in understanding and decrease in uncertainty. Every mass media provides local and international news which contain a lot of information from their country and other countries. Newspaper is one of the sources of information that present actual news, informative, and updated news.

Every Country has their own newspaper to give information to public, such as Indonesia. Indonesia has a lot of printed news companies from Sabang until Merauke. One of the biggest printed media company in Indonesia is JawaPos National Network (JPNN) or Jawa Pos Group. Jawa Pos was founded by The Chung Shen on 1 July 1949 with the name Java Post. Jawa Pos newspaper has also changed its name and appearance for 5 times, from 1949-1993. Jawa Pos is Indonesia's largest media Network, consisting of 164 newspaper, 20 weeklies, and 21 television stations across Indonesia.

The writer chose Jawa Post as a placement to do the internship as an assistant journalis for one month which were started from 7th January 2014 until 14th February 2014. The writer learned about how to process the news, such as searching news from some website such as, AFP (Agence France Presse), AP (Associated Press), Reuters, and EPA (European Pressphoto Agency), yahoonews.com, bbc.com and cnn.com, combining news from other sources, translating news from English into Indonesian language and writing a news. During the short period of his internship, the writer did not only get knowledge about how to become a good journalist but also he got a lot of information about recent news in the world.

The writer hopes every student who wants to do internship in Jawa Pos can get a lot of experiences, knowledge about journalistic, information about the recent news around the world, and become profesional journalist.

In conclusion the writer got incredible experience, a lot of knowledge while the writer was having internship in Jawa Pos as a assistant journalist. Finally, the writer hopes that knowledge and experience that he got there will be useful in the future.
