

ABSTRACT

The influence on mastering the material of education and training on the performance of the third echelon officials in the regional government of Jembrana Regency

Kasmun

The problem research is (1) How the description of mastering the educational material and the training of the third echelon officials and their performance?, (2) How great is the influence of mastering the educational material on the performance of the third echelon officials in the regional government of Jembrana Regency?

The research is intended to analyze the influence between the mastering the material of education and training of the performance of the third echelon officials in the regional government of Jembrana Regency

The method of the research which is used is the observational validity. Population in this research is also a sample, considering the amount is small and easy to reach. But from 53 officials of third echelon suitable for Perda No: 10/2003, there are 6 function still empty sothat the population and the sample 47 person. The instrument for the performance of the third echelon officials are first tested to know the grade of their validity and reliability

The available data are analyzed by descriptive statistic to show the average (Mean), Median and modus as well as standart deviation. The inferential statistic to test the hypothesis by F test

The conclusion which can be drawn in this research (1) the mastering the material education and training of the third echelon officials in medium (moderate) category, (2) The performance of the third echelon in the regional government of Jembrana Regency in medium (moderate) category, (3) There is significant influence between mastering the material of education and training on the performance of the third echelon officials in the regional government Jembrana Regency

The suggestion that can be given in process of improving the performance of the third echelon officials are by making the comparison weel with the subordinates as well as with the other sectors more effectively and by improving the initiatives

Key words: the material education and training also on the performance of the third echelon officials in the regional government Jembrana Regency