

SUMMARY

The influence of mastering the material of education and training on the performance of the third echelon officials in the regional government of Jembrana regency.

K a s m u n

According to the regional government of Jembrana regency's regulation No. 10/2003 about the structural officials in the regional Government of Jembrana Regency, special for the third echelon officials where the middle manager with 53 person where the regional regulation No. 7, 8 year 2000 employed 69 person.

Knowing the increasing amount of the third echelon officials, it certainly has on each available officials, and finally on the working process of those officials. Perspectively here is how to master the educational material and training on the performance it self because education and the training become the rules and Regulations for the persons who have occupied this function or for the persons who are going to occupy this function, special for the third echelon officials, Supdaya, Separna, they are now known as Latpim III.

The aim of this research is to know great is the influence of mastering the Material of Education and Training on the performance in the regional government of Jembrana regency.

The result of this research shows that there is a significant influence between The mastering of educational material and the training on the working process of the Third echelon official in the regional government of Jembrana regency. According to The statistics it is seen that there are 53,28 % of the working process of the third Echelon officials are influenced by educational material and training. The 46,72 % is influenced by another factor, working environment, working motivation etc.

It is also seen that, the mastering educational material and training as well As the working process of third echelon officials in the middle category, because 21 Respondent (44,8 %) on the stretch Mean that is 58 – 67. While the high and the low Each as many as 13 respondents (27,6 %) for the third echelon belongs to the middle And low category, because 15 respondent (31,9 %) on the stretch Mean 92 – 102 And 13 respondents (38,3 %) in the stretch category. While the high is only 29,8 % Or 14 respondents.