

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

4.1 Conclusion

From the discussion part, as the writer here several things I have learned :

First, the elements of the itinerary such as : Purpose of tour, budget, accommodation, transportation, choice of destinations, attractions, activities at destinations, legal issues, behavior of local community members, should be included on the itinerary that made for the clients. All the elements should be included because the elements are the part that should be on the itinerary.

Second, the strategies made the itinerary as the weapon to increasing the touar and travel management on the clients position. The strategies helped the writer to made a good itinerary.

Finnaly, the writer got new experiences how to manage the clients activities on the tour and travel management.

4.2 Suggestions

4.2.1 Suggestion for PT. Andrew Rameyza Wisata Bondowoso

The writer gives a suggestion to PT. Andrew Rameyza Wisata Bondowoso to always keep the good services for the clients from another country, because it could be the image of the management itself and Indonesia.

4.2.2 Suggestion for D-III English Language

The writer gives a suggestion for D-III English Language to give more references and also experiences on choosing the internship place, so the students have more ability that will be useful on the real work life. D-III English Language should expand the connection with a lots of company or institutions, because it will help the students easier to get the internship place.

The writer also gives a suggestion for D-III English Language to input the itinerary as a part of the material or course in a learning process. Since the major in business communication, it will probably very useful to learn and understand about itinerary.
