CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

4.1   Conclusion

Based on the discussion section, the writer can make the following conclusions. First of all, it is important to teach students using a particular strategy or technique for learning reading because students can gain new experience in the class. The particular strategy or technique like CSR conducted by the writer certainly made the students learn and comprehend the reading texts easily because the students comprehend the text with their group rather than comprehend it individually. Obstacles rose when the class experienced CSR. However, the writer was able to deal with students' problems when they had difficulty in learning reading comprehension through CSR, and the writer also persuaded them by giving motivation to learn English.

Secondly, it is necessary to create a fun and delightful atmosphere in class because it can make students interested in the lesson, especially when the writer always gave a task in every meeting. The writer also learned to give students the appropriate task according to their English porficiency level.

All in all, the writer also learned how to deal with students behaviour in the class when the CSR was conducted. The students had various characteristics when they carried out their roles, and the appropriate approach to the students was really important.
