

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

4.1 Conclusion

In this discussion, some lessons could learn from the writer. Firstly, in the class, the teacher should be building good communication with the students' characteristics in the class. By understanding students' characteristic, the teacher could apply flashcards method should be done maximally. In applying the flashcards method could get students' attention. The media could support the learning process in the class. Students enjoy the material because the situation in the class was made fun. The writer got some experience in facing students in the class. Being friendly, assertive and had more patience were some tricks to face them. As a teacher, the writer should be able to create a fun situation in the classroom to make the students felt comfortable.

4.2 Suggestion

4.2.1 Suggestion for SMP AL AMIN PACIRAN

The writer gives some suggestions for SMP AL AMIN PACIRAN they should try to upgrade the quality of students and the teacher. The teacher in SMP AL AMIN should active and try some strategies that could make students more active in the class. SMP AL AMIN also has to build more connections with Universitas Airlangga to help the students, in particular for English Diploma Program's students, for doing an internship.

4.2.2 Suggestion for D-III English Language

The writer suggests D-III English Language to give some chances to practice more, so it will help the students when they have a real working field. D-III English Language also should build more connections with institutions and schools. It will help the students to choose their place to do an internship.