

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

The writer of this final report is Firdausi Prajata Widyaswari who was born in Jakarta on 6th January 1993. Her childhood was spent in Jakarta until in 1998, and the writer's family chose to move in the small town in East Java named Tulungagung due to the massive riot in Jakarta at that time. The writer did her study in Tulungagung from kindergarten to high school level. After graduating from her high school in 2011, she continued her study in English Diploma program at Universitas Airlangga.

The writer is the first daughter from Teguh Widodo and Yanik Khoir Utami. She has two younger brothers who are still at the junior high school and elementary school right now. The writer has such a passion in arts like drawing and painting. Besides those two activities, the writer is also interested in some activities like reading and travelling. Her main goals in life are travelling around the world and making some paintings in every place she goes.