Reviewers' comments:

Reviewer #1: Should be added TNF-alfa in title because TNF-alfa is one of parameters that examined even not fully proven. The grammar, spelling and syntax is acceptable with minor revision. In abstract should be with the reason about why proinflammatory cytokine has correlation with apoptosis and interference fetal growth. Introduction should be shortened. Material and method too long, should be shortened. Just written the procedure from kit. There is no informed consent. Should be added in material and method. Please explain TNF-alfa more in your discussion. The limitation of study has not stated. Conclusion in the search should be explained more. The table stand on their own. Please add an explanation about table. In Figure, please choose the vivid color for the arrow.

Reviewer #2: The content is enough
English writing need to be improved
Discussion need to be more in-depth, with additional bridging to human impact more detail, according to the diseases in human being
When the experiment was conducted should be included;

Reviewers' comments:

Dear Authors,

Kindly revise your revised manuscript as follows:

1. Use single line spacing throughout the entire manuscript;
2. Insert figures and tables in the appropriate places of the manuscript;
3. Correct the spelling of References at the bottom of page 7;
- 4.. Use full journal names for all the references in the references section.
6. Consult an English Language expert to edit the manuscript for grammatical and punctuation errors.
