

SYNOPSIS

It is a movie from Walt Disney Productions. It is a cartoon movie. The movie tells about a girl named Moana. She is kind and also likes to protect animals. She is the daughter of Chief Tui. Her father is a Chieftain. After a few years, Moana grows to be a pretty woman and replaced her father position to be a leader for her tribe. The conflict began when a man called Maui stole Te Fiti stone from a sacred place. Because of Maui action, the balance of nature became disturb and has the bad effects for the island, sea, ocean, and living things including Moana and her tribes place. When Moana stands in the edge of the beach, her grandma comes to her and says that only her who can fix this problem and make the nature became balanced and normal again. Moana then makes her journey to the unknown place only with faith and courage the problem and to help her people. She finally succeeds at the end and also becomes a good and brave leader for her tribe.