Also, thank you for being my support system, friends that I can always rely on, friends that I can talk to about almost everything, who have taught me a lot of things and inspire me in the process of me becoming who I am today, and giving me the chances to experience things that I had never experienced before. Honestly, I would be so lost and would not know what to do without all of them. Lastly, thank you so much to my dearest friend Salma for texting me first during our early year of high school which was the beginning of our friendship. Thank you for always being there for me in these past seven years, thank you for sticking with me through thick and thin. The fact that we can talk to each other about almost everything every single day without running out of topics makes me believe that our friendship will last longer than I could ever imagine.
